

Stop interfering with the public's right to choose. We pay for this service and are entitled to make our own choices. This bureaucracy needs to spend their time and energy creating positive contributions.